PRODUCTIONS

PUT IT IN THE SCRAPBOOK

When: Aug 24-25 @ 8:00 pm

Where: Morton Theatre in downtown Athens

The department of theatre and film studies will premiere Put It in the Scrapbook at 8 p.m. Aug. 24-25 in the historic Morton Theatre in downtown Athens. The play is an original one-man show written by and starring associate professor George Contini. The play showcases the life of vaudevillian performer Julian Eltinge, a female impersonator often seen as the progenitor to the gender-bending performances of RuPaul, Dame Edna and Eddie Izzard. Tickets are $10 ($7 for UGA students and those older than 60) and will be available at the door the day of performance.
